In Memory of Mac McNeil

Heroes come from the souls of the humble. The very definition of a hero is a person who is admired or idealized for courage, outstanding achievements or noble qualities. Heroes walk amongst us every day.

Such was the case of Mac McNeil. Mac passed away Oct. 17, 2017 from cancer. The disease came quickly but his faith, friends and family allowed him to enjoy a quality of life filled with purpose, joy and determination until his last breath.

Mac had a passion for helping vets and honoring those who bravely fought for our freedom. He became involved in this golf tournament by contacting businesses for monetary donations and gifts for raffles. He sat in front of businesses collecting donations, sometimes from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. Thursdays through Saturdays. One donation in particular was dear to Mac's heart. A young boy walking out of a store hung back a little, looked at Mac and timidly put his penny in the jar. That penny meant everything to that young boy as it did to Mac. Through the efforts of Cindy and Kevin (owners of Hickory Ridge) Mac and many volunteers $100,000 has been raised for wounded warriors over the years. That is a truly remarkable achievement.

After Mac's passing the continuation of the tournament seemed in doubt as there was no one willing to step up to organize the event. Fortunately, a group of Mac's family and friends still see the need for our warriors to receive care and the tournament will go on again this year, taking place at Hickory Ridge Golf Course on Sept. 16. Not only will it be a chance to honor those warriors who have given much for us, but to honor a special man, Mac McNeil, who gave so much of his heart and soul over the years with blessings for the wounded warriors. His family and friends are carrying on his legacy and to honor his memory for humbly helping the wounded warriors.

We hope you will join us in raising funds in Mac's name and memory. We ask you consider a donation and or a gift to be used as a door prize and auction. No amount too small and as Mac would say, no amount too big either. Also, if you would like to sponsor part of the tournament or play either as a single entrant or a foursome, or to sponsor a hole please call Hickory Ridge at 585-638-4653 or call one of the event organizers at 585-319-0277.

We appreciate your kind and generous donation. On behalf of Mac's family, friends and the wounded warriors we thank you.
